

Adam Securities Limited (ASL) continues to be a good corporate citizen, supporting the communities from which it derives its business and recognizing its responsibilities towards all such communities. ASL will be supportive of community initiatives across the organization, targeting those most appropriate for each individual community.

The company has integrated CSR into its ethics and business practices. In this context, community and stakeholder needs are carefully assessed and support is extended in line with the company's policies, code of ethics and business objectives.